It seems the followers have sacked old haven. It diddnt take long for the citizens to create a new town for their young to grow...unaware of the might Astaroth has prepared with the twins. I will soon become in the roof of Wrong to use the power Astaroth hath given me. I will put a curse on the old lands of dupre. The lands before Nystuls great spell. Great research will be put towards the ancient words of power for I yet know not what with wish to wrought on Felucca.
I've stationed some of the late Vincent's men at the gates of New Haven to question commers and goers about what happened in Haven. I'll check back later to see what they have gathered.
